3. Venue is this District is proper under 28 U.S.C. §1391(b) as a substantial portion of the events or omissions giving rise to this claim occurred within the boundaries of the Western District of New York.

JURY TRIAL DEMAND

4. Plaintiff demands a trial by jury on each and every one of this claims as pleaded herein.

PARTIES

5. Plaintiff, Theodore Wilczynski, a citizen of the Commonwealth of Virginia, attended FVU from September of 1991 through June of 1994, during which time he was repeatedly sexually abused.

6. Plaintiff, born on July 19, 1975, was a minor when the when the injuries alleged herein occurred. Under the law of New York, CPLR 208(b), the statute of limitations is tolled by a period of thirty-seven (37) years from the date of his eighteenth birthday to commence litigation.

7. At all times alleged herein, defendant Gates Community Chapel of Rochester, Inc. d/b/a Freedom Village USA, a citizen of the State of New York, is a corporation formed under the Laws of the State of New York, and is located at 5275 NY-14, Lakemont, New York.

8. Upon information and belief, at all times hereinafter mentioned, defendant Pastor Fletcher A. Brothers, a citizen of the State of Florida, owned, operated and controlled FVU.

STATEMENT OF FACTS

9. During the time period of September of 1991 through June of 1994, FVU operated as a private boarding school for troubled teens from a Christian Fundamentalist perspective.

10. Prior to September of 1991, Plaintiff was experiencing difficulty in his local High School, which caused him to be suspended from school. As a result, his foster parents determined that it would be best for him to attend school in a new and different environment that provided an education from a Christian prospective.

11. At all times alleged herein, there were approximately, one hundred (100) students enrolled at FVU.

12. At all times alleged herein, FVA consisted of a school building where classes and religious instruction took place. The kitchen and cafeteria were located in this building. In addition to this building, FVA maintained a two-story dormitory for its male and female students.

13. At all times alleged herein, Brothers owned, operated and controlled FVU.

14. At all times alleged herein, FVU employed Mr. Miguel Galan in various capacities including a Staff Member, Senior Staff Member and Assistant Dean of Boys.

15. At all times alleged herein, FVU employed Mr. Thomas Jipping as a Counselor.

16. At all times alleged herein, FVU employed Mr. Jose Young as a Senior Staff Member.

17. At all times alleged herein, FVU employed Mr. Todd Penkowski as a Senior Staff Member.

Acts Leading to Sexual Abuse

18. At the time Plaintiff enrolled as a student at FVU, Brothers and staff members interrogated Plaintiff on his sexual history for the purpose of forcing a confession of sexual promiscuity and misconduct. For example, Brothers bizarrely demanded to know whether Plaintiff had ever had sex with animals.

19. During his time at FVU, faculty and staff members punished Plaintiff by: (i) forcing him to carry logs from a woodpile back and forth across a parking lot on top of his extended arms; and (ii) locking him in an isolation room and forcing him to transcribe verses of the Bible.

20. In addition, Senior Staff Members, Young and Penkowski repeatedly harassed Plaintiff by publically accusing him of being a homosexual and saying that that Plaintiff was feminine.

Sexual Abuse as Defined by NY Penal Code Article 130

21. As a result of the wrongful acts committed by the FVU faculty, administration and staff members, Plaintiff was subjected to sexual abuse as defined by New York Penal Code Article 130 as a result of being placed into a position of weakness and vulnerability.

22. During his time at FVU, Galan lived in an apartment in the boys' wing of the dormitory. While living in close proximity to the male students of FVU, Galan engaged in a pattern of forming inappropriate relationships with them. Galan would befriend certain boys by giving them extra attention and allowing them to have special privileges such as allowing them to watch television, listen to music and giving them food.

23. In addition, Galan would visit male students in their respective rooms and lay with them in bed, or invite male student to lay in Galan's bed with him.

24. Although Galan's inappropriate conduct was brought to the attention of FVU administration and Brothers, FVU, nevertheless, promoted Galan from Staff Member to Senior Staff Member and eventually to the administrative position of Assistant Dean of Boys.

25. Throughout his time at FVU, Galan targeted Plaintiff as a victim for sexual abuse. Specifically, Galan repeatedly sodomized Plaintiff as well as performed oral sex on him.

26. Although Senior Staff Members Young and Penkowski were responsible for monitoring the boys' dormitory each night, both looked the other way when observing Galan's abuse of Plaintiff.

27. Galan's sexual abuse not only occurred on FVU grounds, he also abused Plaintiff during a FVU school trip to Indiana that Plaintiff attended with the Freedom Victory Singers.

28. During that trip, Galan forced Plaintiff to sleep in Galan's hotel room. In the middle of the night, Galan masturbated on top of Plaintiff and eventually sodomized him.

29. During Plaintiff's senior year, Galan stopped abusing Plaintiff only after local police arrested Galan for raping another male student at FVU.

30. In addition to the sexual abuse committed by Galan, Jipping also sexually abused Plaintiff.

31. As was the case with Galan, Jipping would visit male students in their respective rooms and lay with them in bed, or invite male student to lay in Jipping's bed with him.

32. Jipping would enter Plaintiff's room at night and lay in bed with Jipping, grinding his erect penis into Plaintiff's back. Jipping then began to manipulate Plaintiff's penis. Eventually, Jipping sodomized Plaintiff.

33. After the first time Jipping sodomized him, Plaintiff sought medical treatment from the FVU nurse, including a request for an AIDS test. Following Plaintiff's visit to the FVU nurse, FVU made no record, did not investigate the incident, and did not test Plaintiff for AIDS.

34. As was the case with Galan, Senior Staff Members Young and Penkowski looked the other way when observing Jippings' abuse of Plaintiff.

35. During Plaintiff's senior class trip to Washington D.C., Plaintiff and the other male students stayed in a residence that Jippings maintained in Washington D.C. area. While staying in Jippings residence, Jippings forced Plaintiff into the bathroom and sodomized him, which caused Plaintiff to bleed for a period of one week.

36. After the repeated sexual abuse by Galan and Jippings, FVU expelled Plaintiff from following and in internal interrogation related to Galan's arrest.

FIRST CAUSE OF ACTION
(Negligent Hiring)

37. Plaintiff repeats and realleges each and every allegation contained in the foregoing paragraphs of this Complaint with the same force and effect as if fully set forth at length herein.

38. At all times alleged herein, the administration and staff members of FVU, including Miguel Galan and Thomas Jipping were in an employer-employee relationship with FVU.

39. FVU and Brothers owed the FVU students, including Plaintiff, a duty of care to perform the requisite screening of administration and staff in order to hire competent and morally-fit employees.

40. FVU, a private boarding school for troubled teens operating from a Christian Fundamentalist perspective, and Brothers knew or should have known of the propensity of its administration and staff, including Miguel Galan and Thomas Jipping to subject its minor students, including Plaintiff, to sexual abuse prior to the sexual abuse of Plaintiff, as set forth above.

41. The wrongful acts committed by the administration and staff of FVU, as set forth above, were committed on school grounds and in connection with FVU school functions and events.

42. The wrongful acts committed by the administration and staff of FVU, as set forth above, were the proximate cause of severe physical and emotional harm to Plaintiff that continues to this day.

43. Based on the foregoing, FVU and Brothers are jointly and severally liable to Plaintiff for compensatory and punitive damages in an amount to be determined at trial as a result of its negligent hiring of the administration and staff of FVU.

SECOND CAUSE OF ACTION (Negligent Training)

44. Plaintiff repeats and realleges each and every allegation contained in the foregoing paragraphs of this Complaint with the same force and effect as if fully set forth at length herein.

45. FVU and Brothers owed the FVU students, including Plaintiff, a duty of care to properly train its administration and staff to ensure that they could provide an education to its students in a competent and morally-fit manner.

46. FVU, a private boarding school for troubled teens operating from a Christian Fundamentalist perspective, and Brothers failed to properly train its administration and staff, and knew or should have known that a failure to do so would result in the sexual abuse of the minor students of FVU, including the sexual abuse of Plaintiff, as set forth above.

47. The wrongful acts of the administration and staff of FVU, as set forth above, were committed on school grounds and in connection with school functions and events.

48. The acts of wrongful acts of the administration and staff of FVU, as set forth above, were the proximate cause of severe physical and emotional harm to Plaintiff that continues to this day.

49. Based on the foregoing, FVU and Brothers are jointly and severally liable to Plaintiff for compensatory and punitive damages in an amount to be determined at trial resulting from its negligent training of the administration and staff of FVU.

THIRD CAUSE OF ACTION AGAINST (Negligent Supervision)

50. Plaintiff repeats and realleges each and every allegation contained in the foregoing paragraphs of this Complaint with the same force and effect as if fully set forth at length herein.

51. FVU and Brothers owed the FVU students, including Plaintiff, a duty of care to properly supervise its administration and staff to safeguard its students from sexual abuse.

52. FVU, a private boarding school for troubled teens operating from a Christian Fundamentalist perspective, and Brothers failed to properly supervise its administration and staff, and knew or should have known that a failure to do so would result in the sexual abuse of the minor students of FVU, including the sexual abuse of Plaintiff, as set forth above.

53. The wrongful acts committed by the administration and staff of FVU, as set forth above, were committed in connection with school functions and events.

54. The wrongful acts committed by the administration and staff of FVU, as set forth above, were the proximate cause of severe physical and emotional harm to Plaintiff that continues to this day.

55. Based on the foregoing, FVU and Brothers are jointly and severally liable to Plaintiff for compensatory and punitive damages in an amount to be determined at trial as a result of its negligent supervision of the administration and staff of FVU.

FOURTH CAUSE OF ACTION (Negligent Retention)

56. Plaintiff repeats and realleges each and every allegation contained in the foregoing paragraphs of this Complaint with the same force and effect as if fully set forth at length herein.

57. FVU and Brothers owed the FVU students, including Plaintiff, a duty of care to properly investigate the complaints of sexual abuse committed by its employees as well as the conduct of its employees to safeguard its minor students, including Plaintiff, from sexual abuse.

58. Upon information and belief, students and others had complained of sexual abuse committed by Miguel Galan and Thomas Jipping prior to the sexual abuse of Plaintiff, as set forth above.

59. FVU, a private boarding school for troubled teens operating from a Christian Fundamentalist perspective, and Brothers failed to properly investigate the complaints of sexual abuse committed by Miguel Galan and Thomas Jipping as well as the conduct of its administration and staff as set forth above, and knew or should have known that a failure to do so would result in continued sexual abuse of Plaintiff.

60. The wrongful acts committed by the administration and staff of FVU, as set forth above, were committed in connection with school functions and events.

61. The wrongful acts committed by the administration and staff of FVU, as set forth above, were the proximate cause of severe physical and emotional harm to Plaintiff that continues to this day.

62. Based on the foregoing, FVU and Brothers are jointly and severally liable to Plaintiff for compensatory and punitive damages in an amount to be determined at trial as a result of its negligent retention of employees that sexually abused Plaintiff and/or placed Plaintiff in a position to be sexually abused.

FIFTH CAUSE OF ACTION
(Negligence)

63. Plaintiff repeats and realleges each and every allegation contained in the foregoing paragraphs of this Complaint with the same force and effect as if fully set forth at length herein.

64. FVU and Brothers owed the FVU students, including Plaintiff, a duty of care to ensure that its administration was competent and morally-fit to educate its minor students, including Plaintiff.

65. FVU and Brothers owed the FVU students, including Plaintiff, a duty of care to ensure its staff members were competent and morally-fit to work in close proximity to its minor students, including Plaintiff.

66. FVU, a private boarding school for troubled teens operating from a Christian Fundamentalist perspective, including Brothers knew or should have known of the propensity of its administration and faculty, including Miguel Galan and Thomas Jipping to engage in wrongful conduct that would lead to the sexual abuse of the minor students of FVU, prior to the sexual abuse of Plaintiff, as set forth above.

67. The wrongful acts committed by the administration and staff of FVU, as set forth above were committed on school grounds and in connection with school functions and events.

68. The wrongful acts committed by the administration and staff of FVU, as set forth above, were the proximate cause of severe physical and emotional harm to Plaintiff that continues to this day.

69. Based on the foregoing, FVU and Brothers are jointly and severally liable to Plaintiff for compensatory and punitive damages in an amount to be determined at trial as a result of its negligent failure to safeguard Plaintiff from sexual abuse committed by the administration and staff of FVU.

SIXTH CAUSE OF ACTION
(Negligent Infliction of Emotional Distress)

70. Plaintiff repeats and realleges each and every allegation contained in the foregoing paragraphs of this Complaint with the same force and effect as if fully set forth at length herein.

71. In failing to prevent the acts of sexual abuse of Plaintiff committed by its administration and staff, FVU and Brothers acted in blatant disregard of the high degree of probability of the severe emotional distress and physical harm that Plaintiff would directly suffer.

72. The failure of FVU and Brothers to safeguard Plaintiff from sexual abuse committed by the administration and staff of FVU was outrageous and extreme as to go beyond all possible bounds of decency and to be regarded as atrocious and utterly intolerable in a civilized community.

73. The failure of FVU and Brothers to safeguard Plaintiff from sexual abuse committed by the administration and staff of FVU proximately caused Plaintiff to directly suffer severe physical harm and emotional distress.

74. Based on the above, FVU and Brothers are jointly and severally liable to Plaintiff for compensatory and punitive damages in an amount to be determined at trial as a result of its negligent infliction of emotion distress.

WHEREFORE, Plaintiff, Theodore Wilczynski, demands the following relief, jointly and severally, against Defendants, Gates Community Chapel, Inc., d/b/a Freedom Village USA, and Fletcher A. Brothers (aka Pastor Brothers):

- A. Compensatory damages in an amount to be determined by jury at the time of trial;
- B. Punitive damages in an amount to be determined by jury at the time of trial;
- C. Attorneys' fees, costs and interest; and
- D. Such other and further relief as this Court deems just and proper.
